WE, the undersigned, support the nomination of 21 ECCLESTON SQUARE, London—the home of Sir Clements R. Markham—as a fitting address for the installation of an English Heritage BLUE PLAQUE. This place was where Britain’s interest in the South Polar Regions was re-kindled, where the seeds of the National Antarctic Expedition (Discovery) and the British Antarctic Expedition (Terra Nova) were sown, and where the man largely responsible lived from 1859 until his death in 1916.
